

Hello Squirrels, Rabbits & Hedgehogs,

We hope you are well and have enjoyed learning some new life skills this week. We are not setting work for over the Easter holidays but please do continue to read, practice your times tables and do other activities that you enjoy. We've included some optional fun activities that you might like to have a go at over the Easter Holidays:

Settle down and listen to an audio book by David Walliams Tune in at 11am to hear David Walliams read a chapter of one of his books each day. Don't worry if you've missed a few sessions! There is a catch-up section on his website. https://www.worldofdavidwalliams.com/elevenses/ 	Learn about Easter Traditions from around the world Have a go at the Easter activity booklet to find out about how Easter is celebrated in different countries. 	Take a Virtual Trip Explore the globe from the comfort of your own home. Click the link to take a virtual trip to: Check on the Penguins, Koalas and Tigers at Edinburgh Zoo. Explore the world's largest cave. Take in the stunning art at the Louvre.
 Next term, our big question is 'What did the Romans ever do for us?'.  Over the holidays, have a think about what you would like to find out about this topic.
We have each created a class blog so that you can share your learning and what you are up to over the Easter holidays. Instructions for how to access your class blog are found below.

Hello Squirrels,
I hope that you have been enjoying the lovely weather that we've been having. I've been taking advantage of the sunny weather by going on daily walks in the woods. My gerbil, Widget, is enjoying all of the attention and she now has her own adventure playground in my living room! I hope that you have a lovely Easter holiday with your family.

Best Wishes,
Miss Thomas
and Widget.

Hello Hedgehogs,
I am really missing you all! I hope you are all well and keeping safe. I have been enjoying taking my dog, Po, for long walks. Her favourite pastime is catching sticks and chasing squirrels. I hope you have made the most of your time at home and have been helping out with the chores. Have a lovely Easter holiday, Take Care,
Mrs Squires

Hello Rabbits,
Although I am missing all of you very much, I am now able to walk my dog Rosie every day. We have been able to enjoy some great walks in the woods, spotted deer, squirrels, pheasants and even found a grass snake sunbathing on a log! Try to get outside this Easter and see how Spring is renewing nature all round us. With my very best wishes to you and your family. Happy Easter from Mrs Coyle.

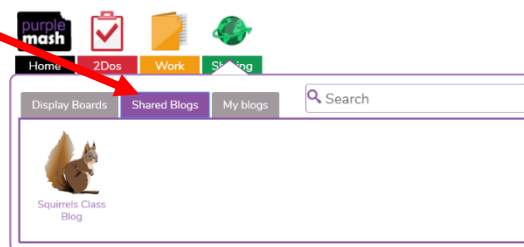

How to Access and Comment on Blogs

To enable you to share some of your learning and experiences while you're outside of school, we've set up a class blog for you to use. The instructions below show you how to find and use the blog.

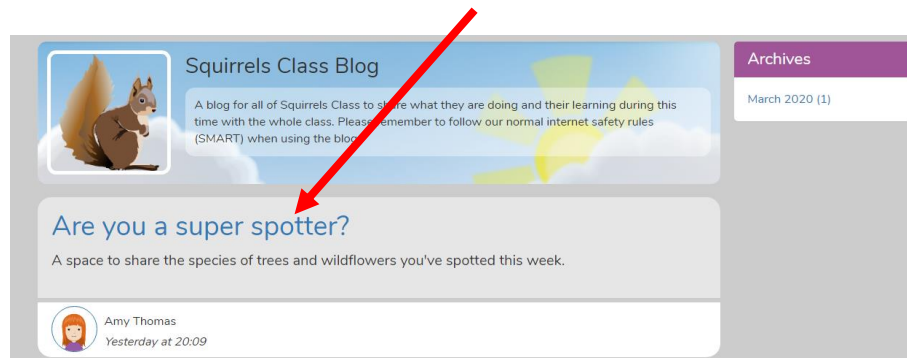

1. Log on to PurpleMash as normal.
2. Click on the 'Sharing' button.

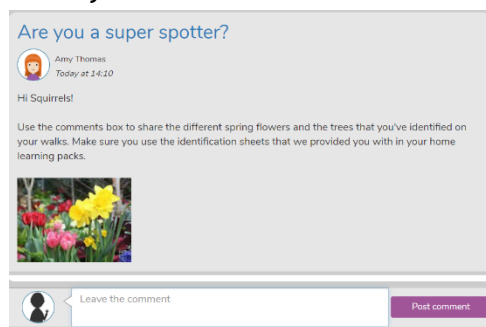

3. Then select 'Shared Blogs' and click on the blog you want to view.

4. To read a blog post, click on the title of the post (it is blue).

5. If you'd like to post a comment about the blog post. Click in the 'Leave the Comment' section at the bottom of the post and write your comment. Then click 'Post Comment'.

Remember: Your comments are visible to all members of the class and the class teacher. They will be checked on a regular basis. You must follow our 'Think' rules when posting messages and NEVER post personal information about yourself such as your age, address or telephone number.

Before you speak
THINK
